

LYNN WEBB PODCAST OUTLINE

1:35 – Ryan introduces Lynn Webb.

3:48 – Lynn talks about when she first learned about positive reinforcement training and shares some stories of animals she trained.

14:01 – Lynn shares a bit about her background in history.

19:47 – Lynn tells people they can find out more about her work on her website, www.proficientpup.com, her Facebook page: [www.facebook.com/the proficientpup/](https://www.facebook.com/the proficientpup/) and on Instagram @the proficientpup

21:27 - Lynn shares about the journey that led her to work with training alternatives to snake avoidance training.

33:47 - Lynn discusses her approach to snake avoidance training and shares some important things for people to know.

54:13 - Lynn goes into detail about solid behaviors she thinks are critical for snake avoidance and the importance of generalizing and maintaining those behaviors.

1:06 – Lynn talks about the importance of management in snake avoidance.

1:10 – Lynn talks about what to do if your dog gets bitten by a snake.

1:17 – Lynn tells the listeners some things she would like to see happen in the next five to ten years both in snake aversion training and in pet dog responsibility in general.

1:20 - Ryan thanks Lynn for coming on the show.

1:21 - Ryan tells people where to find out more about Animal Training Academy.